EIGHTEENTH CENTURY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, Feb. 2.-Mr. James Hazen Hyde, one of the young and rich bachelors of New York society, gave an enterainment last night at Sherry's that New York society called a very charming and novel affair. Before the first of the new year he sent out invitations to many of tury fete, with a French play, at Sherry's, tury fete, with a French play, at Sherry's, and society at once became occupied in costume preparations. There was much grumbling at first, as it is not altogether agreeable in the busy life of social New York to devote time to planning costumes, but few asked to the fete declined, and from a small affair, at first intended by the host, the list grew and grew until he had absolutely to geeline to give any further invitations. Not that he was ungeneous, but the capacity of Sherry's rooms have their limit, and therefore Mr. Hyde had to desist in extending invitations beyond a certain number.

The fete was carried out in an elaborate manner and with much elegance of detail. The beautiful ballroom of Sherry's establishment was transformed into a tail. The beautiful ballicoin of shary's establishment was transformed into a theatre very much after the time of the days of Versailles' glory. The scheme was after Mr. Sherry's own ideas, the designs having been drawn by Mr. Whit-creeted at the south end of the room, over this was hung a baldiquino of royal purple velvet, embroidered with the fleur de lys in gold. At either side of the platform was a screen of bay and orange trees, with plants in bloom. At the left side was stationed an orchestra from the Metropolitan Opera, which was led by Mr. Nathan Franko. The guests were scated in handsome chairs placed at intervals, and the gallery was turned into a "loge grille," in which sat several women, who did not care to have chairs on who did not care to have chairs on

QUAKER CITY WANTS BUSINESS FROM SOUTH

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Feb. 2.—Encour aged by its successful campaign in the South, the Merchants' and Travelers' As-sociation has broadened its field of labor, sociation has broadened its fleid of labor, and plans were made yesterday to bring business to this city from every State east of the Mississippi River and south of the Great Lakes A joint meeting of the Great Lakes A joint meeting of the dissociation's committees on publicity and passenger traffic was held at the room of the association, Market and Thirteenth Streets, and preliminary arrangements for the spring campaign we've discussed.

Weldors to Washington to the inauguration of President Roosevelt will be the object of the first work undertaken by the association. They will be asked to come here and see the business houses. messes, and Governor Blanchard, of Louislans.
Governor Montague said in his letter:
'The strengthening of the social and commercial relations between Philadelphia and the South is a desirable object. Before the Civil War the city of Philadelphia exercised a very potent influence commercially and educationally throughout the South. The renewal of those relations must redound, not only to the commerce, but to the patriotism or the country.'

Making Radishes Into Potatoes. Making Kadishes into Potatoes.
"The decovery of a means of metamorphosing radishes into potatoes has been made in so so emb a place as the Academy of Sciences, Paris, says the American Inventor." M. Molliard takes a very young radish, Pasteurges it in a certain way, and it srows in into a the potato. More scientifically, the young radish is cultivated in a glass retort, after a process invented by Pasteur, in a concentrated solution of glaces, Starch then develops plentifully in the cells of the radish, which swells out loss its better lights, which swells out loss its better lights and acquires practically the consistence flavor and especially the nutritive THE HATE FOR CLASSIFIED WANT ADVERTISING
